New York.

Dear Sir:-

You will recall that some months ago we loaned you some proofs of bank notes as issued by the Banco de la Provincia de Buenos Aires and the Banco Nacional de Buenos Aires.

We understand that you needed these proofs in connection with some data which you were compiling for the Guaranty Trust Company.

We would be glad if you would let us know if they have now served your purpose as, should this prove to be the case, we would like you to return the proofs to us in accordance with your promise.

Yours very truly,

ENG/IW

Dear Sir:-

In pursuance of the verbal arrangement entered into by you with the writer, we now formally place on record the terms upon which you are to assist the company in the preparation of its literary propaganda and to prepare such publications as we may desire to issue for the purpose of extending our operations.

We are to pay you the sum of $200.00 per month in return for a probationary period of one year, beginning November 1st, 1917, - wherefor your services are to be at our disposal for the work indicated above.

It must be understood, however, that no articles are to be issued without having the same submitted to us for our final approval, which we will give in writing.

Kindly confirm this arrangement and oblige.

Yours very truly,

Vice President.

Dear Sir,

I have to acknowledge receipt from you of 15 photographs (8 small and 7 large) relating to the forgeries of notes of the Bank of France.

It is understood that these photographs have been kindly placed at my disposal for publication in whole, or in part by "La Nacion" of Buenos Aires, to illustrate the article I am preparing on the subject of the forgeries, which will be submitted to you ~~for~~ approval prior to its transmission. I am writing by same mail to the Director of 'la Racion' informing him that I have undertaken to return the photographs <sup>some as</sup> they have been re-produced and asking for their early return to me.

Dear Sir:-

LEOPOLD GRAHAM

This gentleman called me up to-day and informed me that he has made arrangements with Mr. Woodhull to receive his monthly salary right straight along each month until he again has a chance to talk the matter over with Mr. Woodhull.

In other words, the advance payment which we have made to him is not to be deducted from his regular allowance.

P.S. It is of course understood that Mr. Graham will not be paid more than his allotted salary or $2400 per annum.
